ANNOUNCEMENTS.
For Congress.
Hon. J. C. Speight, of Graves county

DAILY THOUGHT.
Put some beauty into your life every day by seeing beautiful works of art, beautiful bits of scenery, or by reading some noble poem or prose selection.

THE WEATHER.
Partly cloudy and much cooler tonight with rain in east portion. Thursday fair weather.

DON'T WASTE YOUR VOTE.
Hon. J. C. Speight, republican nominee for congress in the First district, is gaining ground every day, according to reports. The democratic nominee will lose heavily in the approaching election. While the "gold-bug" democrats may vote the democratic ticket this time, the gain from this source will be offset by a heavy loss of the free-silver element. Just how great the revolt will be remains to be seen. There is no doubt but that the populists are going to make heavy inroads into the democratic vote.
They have started an aggressive campaign, and will not only get the greatest part if not all of the populist vote that has been going to the democrats for the past eight years, but will get many democratic votes as well. Many democrats stake as if they will not vote at all. They can't stand for Parker and do not want to vote any other than the democratic ticket.

In short, Mr. Speight stands as good a chance to be elected as a republican ever stood in this district. He is an intelligent, honorable gentleman, and his ability is such that he would be a credit to his state in congress. Moreover, he belongs to a party that stands for something, and a party that does things.
Added to his own genial personality and exceptional ability are the principles of the great republican party which he represents—a party that is going to win—and a vote for Mr. Speight will be one well cast, and one of which the voter can always feel proud. The First district has been represented in congress by democrats long enough. A republican from the district could accomplish many things for the district and secure many benefits for the people. Among the things he could do would be to draw some attention to our waterways and harbors, and give the commercial interests benefits of which they have long been deprived. The district has long been neglected in this respect, and in other respects, because little attention is paid in congress to a democrat.

Congress is republican, and bids fair to remain that way for many a day. With a republican representing the district, the district's prestige would exceed that of any other Kentucky district in congress, and we could obtain recognition in the shape of many benefits long desired and asked for.

Why waste your vote by casting it for a democratic representative who goes to congress with his hands tied, and never has a chance to do anything except draw his salary?

Unable to point to any act of President Roosevelt's administration that is censurable, the Democrats are expressing the fear that he will prove his "dangerous" character if he is elected.
Funny, but that is just what the voters of the nation are thinking about the Democratic party.

Louisville lost a $250,000 organ factory because of the pig-headedness of the council in refusing permission to run a switch to the plant, only a short distance. Some public officers seem to possess a peculiar idea of what constitutes looking after the public's interests.

In making wagers on the election results the Democrats will not even accept the 16 to 1 ratio. Some of the daring ones express a mild willingness to take the short end of 100 to nothing propositions.

After reading the remarks of Judge Parker, H. G. Davis and other Democratic leaders there is no room for doubt that the party still agrees with Hancock in declaring that the tariff is a local issue.

Judge Parker is reported pleased over the fact that the republican plurality in Maine was only 33,000. It evidently doesn't take much to please him.

Western Democrats feel that they were ignored when the party failed to follow the 1896 example of flying a two-tailed kite.

Reciprocity can not be grafted on a free trade stalk.

Judge Parker has an over supply of Burchards.

ROOSEVELT'S ACCEPTANCE.
(Lexington Leader.)

Hon. J. G. Cannon, chairman Notification committee.
My Dear Sir: I accept the nomination for the presidency tendered by the Republican national convention, and cordially approve the platform adopted by it.

With the above characteristic sentence President Roosevelt commences his formal letter of acceptance. The brevity, succinctness and directness of the sentence marks the whole deliverance.
The entire letter rings clear as a clarion call. There is no temporizing, no evasion, no dilatoriness. Plaudits are foreign to its spirit. Generalization and indefiniteness of expression find no place in it.

The letter is compendious yet comprehensive; terse yet ample in its treatment of all issues, and in its comment on the lack of issues of the campaign.
Its simplicity and freedom from diverting and irrelevant questions would satisfy even Pasteur Wagner and be in accord with all his dicta upon the "Simple Life."

With the skilled touch of the master of all details of the issues of the campaign, the complexities and involvements of the varying and diverse circumstances and facts which envelope and shroud the points in controversy fade away as mist before the sun. Nor can any confusing of these issues be accomplished by a platitudinous repetition of the Esopus speech of acceptance.
A halt is called on misrepresentation.
Historic facts are set forth precisely and exactly. Conclusions are drawn with logical precision.

In fine, the president's letter of acceptance is and will be pronounced one of the most splendid pieces of literary comment on affairs which has ever appeared. It is scholarly and heroic. It rings in pure and pellucid tones, and bears the mark of the learned master of affairs. And in this it is characteristic of the man. There is nothing of bombast, nothing of mock heroics in it, yet it goes to the full extent of honesty and righteousness. It is temperate, yet firm, and hard as flint. There is no more escaping its conclusions than there is resisting the inherent force and strength of character of the man who penned the lines.

It is a document which will mark the final determining point of the campaign, enthralling the followers of the president with new zeal for the cause.

There can be no mistaking the fact that there is a wise and gallant leader and director of works at the helm, and the leadership is of such a nature that new life will be infused into the campaign to the end of an overwhelming victory.

The one character, Roosevelt, stands forth a winning issue in itself. It brooks no comparison which will be unfavorable. It invites minute inspection.
Where the Democrats lack a leader, and are throughout the east bemoaning this want, Republicans, viewing with an energetic satisfaction their helmsman, and the excellent working force behind him, are urged on with the consciousness of ultimate success.

The inspiring personality of the president, and the rock-bed solidity, and sense of his platform; his clean record as a private citizen and his efficient administration of offices of public trust; his vigorous determination to benefit and better the government in its every interest, and his splendid ability to carry out all his aims and promises, warrant the call for his enthusiastic support by all patriotic and wise citizens.

OVER $5,000 SPENT
FOR SCHOOL BOOKS

The Rush This Year Greatest
Ever Known.

The Enrollment Continues to Increase Every Day in the Paducah Public Schools.

NEW TEACHER IN LITTLEVILLE

The increase in the enrollment of the city public schools amounts to about 200 since the opening day.

Supt. Leib has been busy writing enrollment cards and yesterday issued 75.
The day before he issued a great deal more than this number, and is still busy writing them, although now the applicants are comparatively few.

The attendance will probably fall a little short of the enrollment, as it always does, but the schools will have more patronage this year than ever before, it is thought. The teachers have all settled down to steady work and no confusion has resulted as far as has been reported.

The residents in Littleville who want a school in that suburb, have selected a building and are repairing it now and will have it ready in a few days. Supt.
Leib will visit Littleville tomorrow and inspect the work. The city will furnish the teacher and fuel and the residents the building. It is thought the school will be ready for occupancy by next Monday.

School books have this year cost more than ever before. The local dealers have had the biggest rush in the history of Paducah, and it is estimated that over $5,000 has been spent for books.

There are nearly 2,500 pupils enrolled, and all have to have brand-new books.
The average cost has been over $2 a pupil. The rush is not yet over, and is expected to last throughout the week.

SPEAKER CANNON

Is to Speak in Metropolis on Tuesday, September 20.

Tuesday, September 20, will in all probability prove one of the big Republican rally times over in Massac-county, Illinois, for the present campaign.

On that day Hon. Joseph G. Cannon speaker of the house of representatives and one of the best known men in politics and one of national reputation, will be in Metropolis and deliver an address. Congressman James G. Watson, of Indiana, one of that state's best orators, will also be one of the chief speakers. There is talk of at least a car load of enthusiasts coming over from Gol-conda alone. It is probable a few may go down from Paducah to hear Speaker Cannon.

GETS ONE YEAR FOR
FALSE STATEMENT

Walter Groce Convicted of False Swearing.

The Grand Jury Today Reported Another Large Batch of Indictments.

NEWS OF THE OTHER COURTS

Walter Groce, the young man who threatened his wife with a pistol and bricks, was this morning given one year in the penitentiary for false swearing. Groce swore in police court he had no pistol and it was proven he did.

Groce after swearing falsely realized what a serious crime he had committed and ran out of the court room at the city hall. Jailor Tom Everts gave chase in a buggy and caught him at Eleventh and Kentucky Avenue.

James Graham, white, who was on trial yesterday afternoon for selling a pistol which did not belong to him, was this morning acquitted.

By agreement the case of Mrs. Ida Hessig against Charles Johnson for $10,000 damages for slander, was dismissed and also was the case of Charles Johnson against Dr. Hermann Hessig.

The first case was the result of alleged remarks Johnson had made about Mrs. Hessig and the latter case was a suit for $300. Johnson sued for on a breach of contract.

Will Smith was allowed of plead guilty to cutting in sudden heat and passion instead of being prosecuted for maliciously putting, and received a fine of $50 and costs.

John Gainer, colored, who broke into the stable of John Rogers at Twelfth and Broadway and borrowed his horse and buggy for several hours, was not prosecuted for horse stealing as he really didn't intend to keep the horse, but as fined $10 and costs for trespass.

JAIL CASES FINISHED.

The grand jury has about finished the jail cases, and returned indictments against nearly all the prisoners in jail against whom indictments will be returned. It is now ready to take up other work.

It is understood that an effort is being made to obtain information that will lead to indictments for playing baseball on Sunday. The effort to stop playing failed last year, and none was made this year, but it was stated by opponents of the game that efforts would be made to indict the offenders. Thus far nothing has been obtained that will justify indictments. It is not known what else the jury will take up. It has finished its work on the jail cases much quicker than usual. The law limits the session of the grand jury to one week unless it is extended, and grand juries in the past have held for three weeks, the entire term of court, and then often have not finished work. The present grand jury may be ready to be discharged Saturday, when its second week ends.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

There were sixteen indictments returned today, thirteen against bawdy house keepers and one against Bert fill for malicious shooting, one against Ad Jones for malicious shooting and one against Frank Ross for obtaining money by false pretenses.
The Ross case is set for tomorrow.

COUNTY COURT.

Bertie Merritt, age 19, of the city and Gertrude Wilhite, of the city, ag-17, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

ASKS SUIT FOR DIVORCE.
Capitolia Kennedy has filed suit in circuit court against her husband Hettie Kennedy alleging that he kept drunk and wasted his estate and treated her cruelly on several occasions.

She asks for a divorce and the restoration of her maiden name Capitolia Hester.

Judge Lightfoot has issued an order for J. C. D. Hoggood, guardian for Roy and Allen Hoggood, to file an inventory and appraisement of the estate of Allen T. Caldwell by the 19th of this month or be fined for contempt.

No exceptions having been filed to the following settlements in the last thirty days, they were ordered recorded: Mary E. Rogers, executrix of I. H. Rogers; John Munier, committee of Lucy Dalton; Ora Lee Wilson, administratrix of Clifford Wilson; W. B. Weeks, guardian of Mabel and Penny Weeks.

The following settlements were ordered to lay over until the next term for exceptions: J. R. Walker, administrator of Charles Loffland; Eugenia Gilbert, administratrix of Jesse M. Gilbert; J. E.
Stroud, administrator of James E.
Stroud; Felix G. Rudolph, administrator of Jake Harper; W. M. Tolbert, committee of J. M. Tolbert; Globe Bank and Trust company, guardian for Elvia Sanderson and Ernest Sanderson; Felix G. Rudolph, guardian for Grandison Howard.

Walter B. Rudolph transferred to R.
L. Rudolph for $1 and other considerations, property lying out in the county.
L. P. James, administrator of the Gus Grace estate, sold to Mary Schroeder, for $2,000, property lying on North Fifth between Madison and Harrison streets.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Sanders had a slim docket this morning when he convened police court.

Mrs. Dunn, of Rowlandtown, who got into a dispute with neighbors, was fined $5 and costs.

Bird Hall, white, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

The case against Osborne Travis, colored, who is supposed to be mentally unbalanced, was continued. He is charged with being drunk and disorderly.

The breach of the peace case against Oakley Doolins, white, was continued.

The case against County School superintendent A. M. Ragdale and W. E. Downing, a school trustee, who is now serving on the petit jury at the court house, was continued. They are charged with fighting at the court house yesterday afternoon.

THE NEGRO VOTE.

(St. Louis Globe.)

"Assuming that the negro vote is unanimously Republican," are the words used by the Nashville American in attacking the Republicans for the suffrage plank in the Chicago platform.
Nobody has a right to assume anything of the sort. There are large numbers of negro Democrats in every northern and western state. In St. Louis there are negro Democratic clubs. Negroes march in Democratic processions in this city. So they do in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. The negro vote is not unanimously Republican. The Republicans are not making any special appeal for the negro vote. A convention of negroes a few weeks ago went through the motions of nominating a presidential ticket in St. Louis a few blocks away from where the Democrats were putting up the Parker and Davis ticket, and the object of the gathering of black men, like that of the whites, was to attack the Republican party.

It is the Democratic and not the Republican party which is responsible for the negro issue in politics. In the Chigo platform the Republicans said they avored "such congressional legislation as shall determine whether, by special discriminations, the elective franchise in any state has been unconstitutionally limited, and, if such is the case, we demand that representation in congress and the electoral colleges shall be proportionately reduced, as directed by the constitution of the United States." This is a demand for the enforcement of the constitution. No law-abiding citizen can take offense at any word in that plank.

Nor did the Democratic party, in its national convention, dare to assail the Republican position. The St. Louis platform said something about reviewing "dead and hateful races and sectional animosities," ignoring or forgetting the fact that it was the Democrats and not the Republicans who were doing this.
The Democrats and not the Republicans are talking about the negro vote and the negro issue.

Mr. Joseph Hughes went to Princeton today at noon on business.

following:

Delano, Miss.
Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio: Dear Sir—I feel perfectly well of catarrh. I did as you directed me to

UTAH FARMERS GETTING
RICH OFF GRASSHOPPERS

Farmers of central Utah have organized to rid their fields of grasshoppers, and are exterminating the insects by the ton.

The grasshoppers are particularly numerous in San Pete county, and have become so great a menace to the agricultural interests that the state has placed a bounty of one cent a pound on them. The county clerk of San Pete county has, during the last week, paid bounties on over 8,000 pounds of grasshoppers captured in the neighborhood of the town of Ephraim alone. Dozens of men and boys have dropped their arm work and are devoting all their attention to catching grasshoppers.—
